HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY

Glen Franklin, Bill Tutwiler honored for service to club

At this week's meeting, long-time officers of the club, Glen Franklin and Bill Tutwiler, were honored for their dedicated service to the club — Glen as secretary since 1980, and Bill as treasurer since 1998. As Derek Brown put it, "Each is a voluntary position and their service and institutional knowledge have been so very important to our club these many years." Rotarians took to the podium to say a few words about Bill and Glen and each was presented with a book of letters written by club members in appreciation for their work.

Derek Brown talks about the years of faithful service Glen and Bill have given the club.

Glen and Bill and the cake served in their honor. The cake was decorated with the Rotary emblem and the Rotary motto, "Service Above Self," along with their names.

Jim Miller congratulates Glen on a job well done.

Gene Heathcock visits with Jerry Leake and Bill Tutwiler.

Bill and Glen check club records one last time.
