Part 20 of THE ROTARY GAME Who Is This Rotarian?

A. This Rotarian is a graduate of Florida State University and as an extracurricular activity in college was a high wire flying trapeze performer. This Rotarian met their spouse while working at a temporary job. The spouse, as it turns out, is an Anniston native whose grandfather was the "M" in M and H Valve. This Rotarian's family is a well known entrepreneurial Birmingham family where their father is a former Birmingham Chamber of Commerce Chairman and a Rotarian there. This Rotarian and their spouse are now involved in two businesses under one roof that both have historic roots here in Anniston. They are a two-faith family, with one attending church and the other attending temple. This Rotarian likes fishing and traveling but doesn't get to do much of either.

B. This Rotarian was born in Chicago and lived there until they were six and then moved down to Chattanooga. The youngest of four children, this Rotarian works for a sizeable healthcare company that is based in Murphysboro, Tennessee, and has two centers in Calhoun County. This Rotarian does not have children but does have two Great Danes and a spouse who also works in healthcare. In high school, this Rotarian played floor hockey and was named MVP, flag football and was on the all-star team. This Rotarian recently became a tri-athlete, going on a circuit competing in triathlons in the Southeast along with their spouse. This Rotarian has been a member of our club since 2006, when their predecessor resigned from the club, and they became a member of our club.

C. This Rotarian attended the U.S. Naval Academy and then went on to professional school. At one point he had supper with Lyndon Johnson. During his time at UAB, he met his beautiful wife on a Birmingham street corner while he was preparing to cross the street. She was a student at Birmingham-Southern. He approached her by saying, "Hey, who are you?" It turned out that they had many connections — their families were already friends. This Rotarian is a dedicated Auburn fan. Sometimes he fishes bass tournaments. He started his own business in 1971 and was the founding member of both a church and a school. He has been married for 42 years. He has attended the Chevy Corvette Racing School.
