BIDS for KIDS k i d b i t s

Each week the Catalog Committee will highlight a few of the amazing items that have been donated for the Bids for Kids auction.

Barry Smith asked Barry Krauss for a limited edition, numbered print of his version of the 1979 Alabama Goal Line Stand in the Sugar Bowl that will be custom autographed for the winning bidder. To learn more about Barry, to see the print, and to see that famous play, go to www.barrykrauss.com

Ike Brown obtained from Nathan Turley an autographed Rawlings "Big Stick" Professional Model bat signed (PSA/DNA authenticated autograph) by Atlanta Braves 3rd baseman Chipper Jones and an Atlanta Braves Majestic Athletic replica home jersey signed by all-star catcher Brian McCann.

Donated items/services can be from Rotarians or from others. Whom do you know that you can ask for an auction donation?

Jay Howard visits with Grant Jackson during the meeting.
