AT THE MEETING . . .

President Richard Crabtree announces that Renee Williams is the club's newest Paul Harris Fellow.

Renee Williams named Paul Harris Fellow

Club administrative secretary Renee Williams couldn't quite figure out why Arthur Young asked her to join President Richard Crabtree at the podium. Perhaps he needed an explanation of something she had prepared, she thought. Then she saw other officers (Ike Brown, Glen Franklin, Sheila Gilbert) standing with Richard and Arthur.

That's when President Richard announced, to Renee's surprise, that she was the club's newest Paul Harris Fellow.

Renee Williams continued

For more than fifteen years, Renee has been attending to the paperwork and administrative details of the club. She was praised by the officers for her dedication and commitment to the club, efficiency and quick response to requests. The membership gave Renee a standing ovation in appreciation of her efforts on the club's behalf.

The donation was made by Jim Nolen. President Richard pointed out that Paul Harris Fellows are not limited to Rotarians.
