Club Members:

We are making a last appeal to the membership for items or services you may be able to contribute to the Bids for Kids benefit auction set for November 22. In order to initiate greater giving by the membership, we offer the following suggestions you might consider unlikely auction items, but which are actually the types of things we are hoping to receive:

- Weekend stay at your beach or mountain condo
- Tickets to the Iron Bowl which you will not be able to use
- Auburn/Alabama/JSU sports memorabilia
- Lessons you or a family member might provide — cooking, painting, dancing, musical instruction, etc.
- Complimentary service package provided by professionals, i.e., attorneys, dentists, doctors, accountants, veterinarians, etc.
- Excess tickets you hold to professional or college sporting events
- Merchandise or services from your business
- Art work (original or limited editions by well known artists)

- Football game in JSU President's box
- Private time with Rick Bragg
- Memorabilia from performing artists — signed instruments, clothing, etc.
- Dinner for 8 prepared at your home by a recognized local gourmet cook
- Underwriting or funding of unlimited number of activities, such as NASCAR driving experience, limo from home to Classic on Noble for a great dining experience
- Day at Selwood Farm Sporting Clay Course
- Gift certificates at local restaurants, spas, retail stores, etc.
- Guided tours — Talladega Speedway, Honda
- Ride one shift with County Sheriff's K-9 patrol
